

PETER GUST ECONOMU AWARD

This is IFSEA's SECOND highest award. It is given in honor of our beloved Peter Gust Economou. He was President Emeritus and Commander of the Dignified Order of the Dinner Gong until his death in 1993.

This award is presented to members who have served the food service industry in general, and IFSEA, in particular with such distinction to warrant this recognition.

While consideration will be given to contributions or performance meriting this recognition, the nominee's efforts must be above and beyond the duties of any office held, with emphasis placed on significant contributions made to IFSEA. Food service industry awards and recognition will also be given consideration.

Judging is done in a closed session during the Annual International Conference by the Past Chairman's Advisory Council. If appropriate, the Past Chairman's Advisory Council reserves the right to up-grade any nomination to the Dignified Order of the Dinner Gong.

This award is presented at the Annual IFSEA International Conference.
