OVERVIEW

What is the IFSEA? The International Food Service Executives Association (IFSEA) was organized as the International Stewards and Caterers Association in 1901, and is the first and most respected professional organization in the food service industry. The diverse talents of its more than 2,500 dedicated members, who comprise over 45 senior and 40 student branches in the United States and around the world, are combined for a common cause. - to upgrade food standards and the manner in which food is served; and to find solutions to International nutritional needs. IFSEA also strives to promote education, good fellowship and humanitarianism among its members and with people everywhere. IFSEA Scholarship Grants are for the purpose of assisting deserving individuals to receive food service management or vocational training beyond the high school level. Scholarships totaling almost $100,000 are made available annually through IFSEA. There are local scholarships available through IFSEA Senior branches. This and Membership information can be obtained by either writing or calling IFSEA HQ. In addition, the "Worthy Goal Scholarship Fund" has been established enabling IFSEA to set up a permanent Scholarship program on a long-term, self-supporting basis. The Worthy Goal Fund gives $500 and limited $1,000 Scholarships. Note: Applications must be submitted to the IFSEA sponsoring senior branch or IFSEA Headquarters by February 1st. You must re-apply each year for which you wish to be considered. Don't forget to type it!
