Bits - A Two-Minute Newsletter

Attending a wedding for the first time, a little girl whispered to her mother, "Why is the bride dressed in white?" The mother replied, "Because white is the color of happiness and today is the happiest day of her life." The child thought about this for a moment and then asked, "Woo, why is the groom wearing black?"

You don't stop laughing because you grow old. You grow old because you stop laughing!

"Have a true love, and tell no one. Live happily and tell no one; people ruin wonderful things."

A chef's hat, called a toque, originally had 100 pleats, each symbolizing one of the 100 ways to cook an egg. Chefs received their hats after demonstrating they had mastered all 100 techniques.

"Everybody needs beauty as well as bread, places to play in and pray in, where nature may heal and give strength to body and soul."
John Muir

Grizzly bears' strength can crush a bowling ball.

Cat hair is more electrostatic than dog hair, making it more likely to cling to clothes. And the types of hair found in cat fur have rough or microscopically barbed surfaces, allowing them to hang on to textured surfaces.

Until I was 13, I thought my name was SHUT UP.

Only four minutes of commercials per hour are allowed during the broadcast. TV commentators are not allowed to refer to fans as "fans" or "spectators." They are to be called "patrons," and the rough is to be called the "second cut."

Fans ... oops, we mean patrons ... aren't allowed to wear their hats backwards.

Patrons can bring collapsible chairs to sit on, but those chairs are not allowed to have armrests.

You can't apply to become a members at Augusta. You have to be nominated by a current Augusta member, and new initiations generally aren't accepted unless someone quits or dies. Current membership hovers around 300.

We provide complete sales service for leading manufacturers of food service equipment.
