Bits - A Two-Minute Newsletter

A grandmother was telling her little granddaughter what her own childhood was like. "We used to skate outside on a pond. I had a swing made from a tire; it hung from a tree in our front yard. We rode our pony. We picked wild raspberries in the woods." The little girl was wide-eyed, taking this all in. At last she said, "I sure wish I'd gotten to know you sooner."

"A fool and his money ... can throw a great party."

Returning from the moon, Apollo astronauts Neil Armstrong, Michael Collins and Buzz Aldrin had to fill out U.S. Customs forms just like any other traveler. The items they declared included moon rocks, moon dust and other samples.

Can you believe? 46% of NFL players came from division 2 football programs.

Give your next dinner party a professional touch by warming plates at 200 degrees for five to ten minutes before serving the meal.

Of like minds. 42% of unmarried Americans believe it's important to marry someone who shares their religious faith, one study found.

Bumper Sticker: "If We Quit Voting, Will They All Go Away?"

"Fairview" is the most popular town name in the U.S. "Midway" is 2nd and "Oak Grove" is 3rd.
