CAPITALIZE ON FLAVOR TRENDS WITH SAUCES

"Beyond their traditional uses, sauces are being put to work as dips, marinades, and in dishes beyond the expected. Help maximize ingredients by suggesting other novel applications, such as using alfredo as an appetizer dip instead of red sauce"

"Bold, spicy and global flavors will drive growth through innovation"

"Signature sauces will become increasingly bankable, especially with supplier support. Half of restaurants say they serve at least one, with most claiming to have three or more on the menu"

"Customization, especially with speed-scratch products, could offer a point of differentiation"
